CHANGES IN GOVERNMENT TAKE EFFECT

H.E Lee Kinyanjui to take over MITI

Outgoing CS H.E Salim Mvurya Mgalla

Incoming CS H.E Lee Kinyanjui

Hon. Kipchumba Murkomen

Hon. Mutahi Kagwe

H.E William Kabogo

H.E President William Samoei Ruto has carried out a mini cabinet reshuffle which saw MITI Cabinet Secretary Hon Salim Mvurya moved to the Ministry of Youth Affairs, Creative Economy and Sports.

Former Nakuru Governor Lee Kinyanjui is now the new Cabinet Secretary for Investments, Trade and Industry.

H.E Lee Kinyanjui is the second and immediate former governor of Nakuru County. He has also served as the Assistant Minister for roads and later as the first chairperson of the National Transport and Safety Authority (NTSA). During his tenure at NTSA, he oversaw digitisation of driving licences and logbook acquisition by introducing TIMS. As Nakuru Governor, Kinyanjui initiated Mega projects including construction of Level 4 hospitals across the County, upgrade of the 73-year-old Afraha Stadium, rehabilitation of rural roads through Boresha Barabara program and upgrade of Lanet Airstrip into an airport.

The changes also saw Former CS for Youth Affairs Hon. Kipchumba Murkomen land for the powerful Cabinet post of Interior and National Coordination left vacant after Prof Abraham Kindiki Kithure was promoted to the position of Deputy President. Former CS for Health Hon. Mutahi Kagwe is back in the Cabinet holding the docket of Agriculture while former Kiambu Governor William Kabogo is now the Cabinet Secretary for Information, Communications and the Digital Economy.

William weds Christine

Dr. Juma Mukhwana attended the wedding ceremony for William and Christine Kiplimo at Chepkanga, Catholic Church, Uasin Gishu County. PS Industry wished the couple good luck and God's blessings.
